❖ The Enomatic system is a worldwide certified wine preservation system. It works by reducing the presence of oxygen and replacing it with inert gas. Oxidation is considerably slowed down and the character of the wine is maintained for a longer period. We believe everyone should be able to taste great wine! We are pleased to offer our Enomatic wines by the bottle, 3oz and 5oz pours.

Wine Menu

If you have been fortunate enough to visit Tuscany then you know. If, however you haven't been yet, well let me tell you it is just as the poets, movies and writers have described it. Picturesque doesn't even begin to capture it. Yes, Tuscany is a feast for your eyes with the rolling landscapes, tiny hilltop towns, and majestic villas. But Tuscany is also a feast for the senses. The food, the wine my goodness it really is divine (also sorry for the rhyme). Tuscany awakens in us a lust for life's more pleasurable things and honestly, we work too hard on this side of the globe. My goal for you and myself this season is to slow down and appreciate a good glass of Tuscan wine with some tasty food. As the Italians say, "Dolce far niente - The pleasure of idleness"

My favourite night in Tuscany was spent at Louis Tolaini's house. His backyard had a lattice that was covered in lilacs and it perfectly framed the setting sun on his vineyard. He had a wood fired oven and what seemed like a bottomless supply of pizzas and wine. We were 18 all around a huge table with Louis and his lovely wife at the head. We laughed so much that night. It was a night inspired by Tuscany. I hope I can inspire a little piece of that joy for you here at the Barrington over the fall by helping you discover the wines of Tuscany. As the Tuscan native Leonardi Da Vinci said

"The discovery of a good wine is increasingly better for mankind than the discovery of a new star."

On the opposite page you will find the list of Tuscan wines we have on feature this month. Please don't hesitate to ask me about any or all of them, but more importantly please try one or all of them!

Cheers
