❖ The Enomatic system is a worldwide certified wine preservation system. It works by reducing the presence of oxygen and replacing it with inert gas. Oxidation is considerably slowed down and the character of the wine is maintained for a longer period. We believe everyone should be able to taste great wine! We are pleased to offer our Enomatic wines by the bottle, 3oz and 5oz pours.

Wine Menu

Has wine ever brought a memory to life for you? Transported you back in time? Wine is magical in many ways. It can make food taste better, it can make people funnier and more attractive, but wine's best magic trick, in my opinion, is evoking a place and a feeling you've had before. Bordeaux, when at its best, does this for me.

Before I get ahead of myself, let me share a little piece of my childhood with you. I grew up in rural Prince Edward Island in the small community of Belfast. I didn't have an Easy Bake Oven, or a Barbie Dream House, but I had horses, 13 of them to be exact. My father was a driver and trainer for the sport of harness racing. We had a quarter mile track on our farm for Dad to practice on, and we even had a treadmill just for the horses! My brothers and I would help with feeding, cleaning, and watering. The dried scent of hay, and the rich aroma of leather tackle are as familiar to me as breathing. Horses themselves also have a distinct smell, very different from cows and pigs. Their smell is almost like fresh cut grass, salt, and sweetbread all rolled into one. That might sound crazy to you, but you try and describe the scent of an animal! I digress let's get back to Bordeaux.

For me, this infamous French wine region enlivens my childhood. The first time I tasted Bordeaux the wines were from the region of Pauillac and from the 1984 vintage. I had only been a junior Sommelier for about 3 months at the Ritz Carlton, and I knew only a bit. For me Bordeaux was a red blend, hugely revered, and impossibly expensive. I was there to learn about removing older corks and decanting older wines. The head Sommelier told me to take a whiff, and after one small inhale I swear I could almost hear the clip clop of hooves on concrete. It was like I had a leather harness in my hand and I was reaching to slide it over Mr. Dibs' lowered head. He was always my favourite horse.. The coarse tannins were like a horse's mane. It was unlike anything I had ever experienced with wine before; I wanted to stay in that glass of Bordeaux forever.

It was then I began to research Bordeaux and what I hope you will discover here at the Barrington is that it is so much more than red wine. The lusciously sweet wines of Sauternes can be blue cheese's best friend. The dry white wines are steely and full of citrus notes. Some of the wines take great patience and the price tag is always a point of great debate. Historically, the Bordelaise did not play fair with other wine regions, and while I may feel like I am drinking above my middle-class upbringing, Bordeaux is undeniably magical to me. Let's see what memories we can kindle for you from our selection of Bordeaux on the next page.

Cheers,
