Oh thank god spring is here, thank you thank you thank you Spring is here. The Canadian Winter is a unique experience that we are all stronger for enduring. Yet I don't think any of us would begrudge the other for seeking refuge from a Southerly paradise. This year I decided to go as far South as I have ever been, almost off the continent actually. The 2 weeks I spent in Chile this March driving over 3000 km from North to South are what has inspired this month's wine feature page.

Pablo Neruda said of wine:

Your glorious spring dress is different. Starry child of earth, smooth as a golden sword, soft as lascivious velvet, wine, spiral-seashelled and full of wonder, amorous, wine, at the least, you must be shared.

The stars in the Northern area Elqui shine exceptionally bright, in fact it is home to the most observatories in the world. The variety that shines from that area is Syrah and the Kankana Syrah we have by the glass will make you go supernova. If you want the sensation of "lascivious velvet" look no further than the varietal Carmenère available by the glass or in 3 options by the bottle. There is a great story about Carmenère in Chile but you must ask for me to hear the full yarn. Chile has a climate that suits varietals like Chardonnay, Sauvignon Blanc, and Viognier (all 3 can be found on my list). The terroir also works for reds like the ones I previously mentioned alongside some stellar Pinot Noir and Merlot. But the king of grapes in Chile is without a doubt Cabernet Sauvignon. The "Vinedo Chadwick" Cabernet on my list is without a doubt a special occasion wine but with a recent 100 point rating and beating out wine superstars like Latour in a blind tasting it actually makes the price point a steal.

I'm going to leave you with a story that has a message as all good stories do. While doing my tour of the winery Errazuriz. I was taken by surprise, not by the wines (I knew they were going to be great) but by a secret hidden at the top of a very long staircase. My partner had spotted it but I refused to believe him as it just seemed so unlikely. So there we were in 34+ degree heat with an opulent glass of Don Maxmiano Cabernet climbing up 300 stairs and at the top just as he had promised was a little waterfall and what can only be called a breathtaking view of the estate. It was one of those perfect moments that you just have to take a quiet minute to appreciate it. The message behind this story is that you may have your favourite varietal or region and the idea that something new could exceed your expectations seems unlikely but I urge you to try some Chilean wines because it has been my experience that they are a secret unexpected treasure that delivers a quiet minute of awe and appreciation. If nothing else listen to Pablo Neruda as wine at the least should be shared.

❖ The Enomatic system is a worldwide certified wine preservation system. It works by reducing the presence of oxygen and replacing it with inert gas. Oxidation is considerably slowed down and the character of the wine is maintained for a longer period. We believe everyone should be able to taste great wine! We are pleased to offer our Enomatic wines by the bottle, 3oz and 5oz pours.
